TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Mrs. William Crowell Doane, wife of the bishop of Albany, N. Y., is dead.

Mayor Sulzberger of Philadelphia has been chosen president of the American Jewish committee.

Emanuel Guanturco, the Italian minister of public works, is dead from landslide close to the village of Val-combra, Spain, the population of which fled.

shows an increase of 77 per cent over the total of $751,204 recorded one year ago.

Mrs. Nancy Haff, the oldest white woman in Michigan, is dead at Saginaw, aged 107. She was born at Toronto of Dutch ancestry, coming to the United States just before the War of 1812.

Mrs. Mary Pobleter, wife of Brigadier General Bobeleter of the Minnesota national guard, is dead at St.
Paul. General Bobeleter organized the national guard in Minnesota and Mrs.
Bobleter was regarded by the officers and men as the mother of the Second regiment.

Burglars Make Good Haul.

Minneapolis, Nov. 11.—Burglars who ransacked the houses of W. D. Bout-tell and J. G. Taylor secured almost $2,000 worth of silverware and jewelry for their trouble. Neither Mr. Bout-tell nor Mr. Taylor has been able so far to check up entirely on the property stolen, but their estimates of their losses bring the total up to nearly $2,000. The robbery appears to be the work of experts. They took nothing but solid silver articles and jewelry which could easily be disposed of without danger of detection.

Hunter Shot Through Both Legs.

Ladysmith, Wis., Nov. 11.—A. D.
Crouse of Viola, Wis., was shot through both legs while hunting eight miles north of here. This is the first accident of the season reported here.

sult of a quarrel over an election bet William Hopkins, son of Rev. Thomas Hopkins, and Frank Foley of this place fought a duel here. Hopkins was instantly killed and Foley is fatally wounded.

CONDITIONS CLEARER

But Some Clouds Still Hang
Over Financial Horizon.

BANK STATEMENT IMPROVES

New York Banking Houses Sending to the West and South All the Currency They Can Spare—No More Failures Anticipated.

New York, Nov. 11.—The most eventful week in the financial history of the present generation came to a close with conditions much clearer than a week before, but with some clouds still hanging over the financial horizon. The previous week had closed with the disquieting announcement that the New York bank reserves had lost $20,000,000 in cash in spite of deposits by the government during the week of a nearly equal sum, representing a net cash loss of $60,000,000.

The latest bank statement changes this situation. While it shows a nominal decrease in reserve reserves of $13,985,800, more than two-thirds of this decrease is due to the reserve requirements caused by increase in deposits because of the taking over of loans from the trust companies by the banks. Moreover, the actual cash loss of $4,313,000 is due to the system of averaging accounts for the entire week, including several days before the arrival of the new gold. Unless demands from the country are very heavy this week the arrival of additional gold will more than offset the loss of cash last week.

Tension Created in Europe.

The restoration of comparative security in New York was obtained only by demands upon the money markets of Europe, which created a tension not before experienced since the Boer war.

New York bankers are sending to the West and South all the currency they can spare, especially to those points where in their judgment it is most needed.

One of the favorable features of the situation thus far is the relatively small number of failures of national banks as compared with the record of 1893. At that time seventy-eight national banks suspended in the single month of July and sixty-three additional in June and August, while during the first eight months of 1893 the number of suspensions of state and private banks was 415. In the present crisis the number of national bank suspensions reported does not exceed a dozen and some of these will reopen.

The week opens with the banking situation in New York cleared up so far as any danger of further failures or suspensions is concerned, with the banking reserves comparatively intact and with more than $25,000,000 on the ocean to strengthen them during the present week.

CRAZED WITH JEALOUSY.

Delaware Man Kills Wife and Wounds
Sister-in-Law.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 11.—Crazed with jealousy Fred M. Underhill shot and killed his wife and then turned the revolver upon her sister, Rachel Nelson, firing five bullets into her body. She is also expected to die.
After committing the murder Underhill walked to the home of Magistrate Robertson and gave himself into custody.

Returning home and finding no meal awaiting him Underhill secured his revolver and, going to the home of William Nelson, he found his wife and her sister there. Without a word he fired two bullets into his wife's head and then turned the revolver upon the sister.

FATAL FIGHT AT DANCE.

One Killed and Several Injured in Mining Camp.

Cambridge, O., Nov. 11.—Charles Caldwell of Byesville was killed and several others injured as the result of a fight at a dance at Trail Run, a mining camp near here. While the fighting was in progress and bullets and stones were flying about, Caldwell, who was passing and had no part in the affair, was struck by a stray bullet. John McLoughlin, who with his son also were passing, was struck with a stone. The son shot into the crowd of dancers several times. The McLoughlins were arrested.

Murdered and Badly Mutilated.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 11.—Badly mutilated and bearing marks showing that he had been shot repeatedly and terribly beaten the body of William Cline, a prominent citizen of Bolivar, Pa., was found in a field a short distance from that town. The motive of the crime is thought to have been robery.

BOY WILL RECOVER.

Butler Wounds His Employer's Son and Suicides.

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 11.—John Rjorlin, butler at the Hillair farm, the country home of Paul G. Thebaud, the New York commission merchant, killed himself after he had shot and dangerously wounded his employer's son, Paul Thebaud, Jr. The latter, who alone can explain the shooting, is unconscious.

The family was aroused by the two revolver shots. Young Thebaud was found senseless in bed. A bullet had struck his skull and though deflected, had fractured and depressed the bone.
The butler, stretched upon the floor, was dead with a bullet in his brain.
It is believed that the boy will recover.

JUSTICE M'COMAS DEAD.

Former United States Senator From Maryland Stricken.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Louis Emery McComas, associate justice of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, former United States senator and for four terms congressman from Maryland, is dead at his home in this city. His death was due to heart failure.

had never fully recovered from an attack of pneumonia last summer. He was born in Washington county, Md., he formerly lived.

FOUR PERISH IN FLAMES

New Ulm (Minn.) Man and Grandchildren Victims.

New Ulm, Minn., Nov. 11.—An aged man and his three grandchildren were burned to death in a fire that destroyed their home here. The dead are: Henry Ginner, aged seventy years; Louis Ginner, aged five years; Mary Ginner, aged three years;
Charles Ginner, aged one year.

Henry Ginner was an invalid, practically paralyzed by rheumatism. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Louis Ginner, left home shortly before noon to go to her father's house on an errand and in order to prevent her children from leaving she locked the door. She had not been gone long when Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph Karl, neighbors, noticed that the house was in flames. They gave the alarm, but when rescue of the grandfather and the children was attempted it was found that the entire inside of the dwelling was ablaze.
Nothing could be done to save the victims. The mother was overcome when she reached home and found the house in flames.

It is supposed that the children either played with matches or meddled with the stove and in that way started the fire.

AGED MAN AND BOY SMOTHER

Are Accidentally Asphyxiated by Gas at St. Paul.

St. Paul, Nov. 11.—Ferdinand Manke, seventy-nine years old, and his three-year-old grandson, John A. Anderson, were asphyxiated at their home here. The grandfather was feeble and childish and had been left at home to take care of the child while the child's mother and grandmother had gone out to work. One of the burners of the gas range was open and the old man and the child were dead on the kitchen floor when the boy's mother returned.

It is supposed that Mr. Manke had attempted to start a fire in the gas range in order to prepare some food for the little boy; that he became confused or absent-mindedly left one of the burners open. It is also possible that the child was playing around the stove and turned on the gas. From the position of the bodies it seems probable that the grandfather was overcome by the gas and fell to the floor. The child apparently went to see what was the trouble with its grandfather and it, too, was overcome.

The principal causes of murder are these, in the order in which they stand: Jealousy, drink, quarrels, revenge and robbery.

TO PRESERVE PEACE

Plan Being Perfected to Stop Central American Wars.

ARE WORKING IN HARMONY

Presidents of Three Republics Determined to Stand Together to Attain the Common Aim—Treaty Awaits Signatures of Other Nations.

Mexico City, Nov. 11.—Telegrams have been received by the Mexican government from the Central American republics to the effect that the recent conference held at Amapala and participated in by Presidents Zelaya, Davila and Figueroa will undoubtedly result in the adoption of a plan insuring the peace of Central America.
It was said that the three presidents showed the greatest cordiality towards each other and determined to work in harmony toward the common aim—a treaty—which is said to have been signed by the three.

SUICIDES IN THE TOMBS.

Former Italian Army Officer Jumps to
His Death.

New York, Nov. 11.—Giovani de Chichicia, who until he was compelled to choose between love and duty was a lieutenant in the Italian army, committed suicide in the Tombs. His imprisonment had been brought about by his brother Luigi, a banker of this city. The latter believed Giovanni insane.

According to the police records he fell in love in Italy and, unable as an army officer to support his wife as he wished, deserted and sought his fortune as a cowboy in the American West. The venture was not successful and finally, leaving his wife in their new home, he came to New York to get a fresh start. He asked financial aid of his brother. At a second interview Giovanni was alleged to have peremptorily demanded $1,000 and then $2,000 from the banker, and, it was charged, threatened his brother's life. In the Tombs Giovanni became despondent, complained bitterly of former friends and constantly grieved for his girl wife left alone in the West.

When the doors were opened to permit the prisoners to go to the yard for their daily exercise Giovanni, who occupied a cell on the third tier, stepped quickly out upon the balcony and then sprang upon the guard rail.
He dove head foremost from the staging twenty-five feet below. Several hundred prison companions witnessed his death.

MURDERED BY TRAMPS.

Three Men Found at Different Points on Railway.

Cleveland, Nov. 11.—Three men who were found dead along the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway at various points in Indiana last week and supposed to have met with accidents were murdered, Chief E. A. Snyder of the railway detective force says.

The body of J. W. Murphy of Colorado Springs, who was caring for a load of horses, was found at South Bend, Ind., Nov. 2. The body of Ralph Kyle, a telegrapher of Edgerton, was found at Goshen, Ind., last Tuesday and the body of Henry Rank of Birrien county, Mich., was found at La Porte, Ind., on Friday. The detectives established the identity of the dead men and declare they were really murdered and robbed by tramps. The car in which Murphy was riding bore evidence of a struggle when examined at Buffalo, N. Y. The detectives have traced the tramps in the direction of Detroit and hope soon to make an arrest.

NEARLY EIGHT BLOCKS BURN

Loss of Over One Million by Fire at Iquique, Chile.

Iquique, Chile, Nov. 11.—This port has been visited by a fire, the biggest since 1882, which has entailed losses amounting to over $1,000,000. Seven and a half blocks were burned over before it was under control. The property destroyed was mostly dwellings and no less than 2,000 people are homeless. The fire was about one mile distant from the commercial quarter of the city.

Youth Killed by Saloonkeeper.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Joseph Vaclena, seventeen years old, was shot and killed by John Flala in front of the latter's saloon. John Nowaski, a companion of Vaclena, was wounded. Vaclena and Nowaski, with three other young men, created a disturbance in front of the saloon and the proprietor, believing that he was about to be held up, attacked them.

DEAD AND DOWN TIMBER.

Indians Given Permission to Cut on Red Lake Lands.

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 11.—The department of the interior has made an important ruling, permitting the Indians on the Red Lake reservation to cut timber. At the conference with the Indians held by Congressman Steenerson and Senator Clapp last September the subject of allowing the Indians to cut dead and down timber on the reservation with the exception of white and Norway pine was discussed. On Oct. 12 Mr. Steenerson wrote the department advising that the Indians be granted this permission, stating as his reasons that many of the Indians needed the money to buy the necessities of life and also stating that the disposal of the dead and down timber would help greatly in averting a fuel famine in the Northwest.

Mr. Steenerson has received a reply from the department which says:
"Under date of Oct. 31, 1907, the president granted the authority requested. The superintendent of the Red Lake Indian school has been authorized to permit the Indians to proceed in accordance with the authority of the president."

tinental railroads that operate in Washington from putting into effect on Nov. 4 an increased rate on eastbound lumber.

Benson, Minn., Nov. 11.—A prairie fire near Clontarf, six miles west of Benson, did considerable damage.
About 500 tons of hay were burned.
The wind was blowing almost a gale and wisps of blazing hay were blown from stack to stack across the narrow firebreaks that had been made.

Dakota Land Grants Approved.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Final approval of the lists of lands granted to North Dakota, aggregating nearly 50-000 acres, have been approved by the interior department. These lands are approved to the state in connection with the erection of public buildings.

Storm and Floods in Italy.

Rome, Nov. 11.—The rain storms and floods throughout Italy continue.
Railroad tracks are being carried away in several places and reports are being received of the destruction of houses and the drowning of cattle.
Several human lives have been lost.

Irish Horses and Athletes.

The history of horses, especially of thoroughbreds, goes to prove that parts of Ireland and Australia are the very best cradles for horse breeding in either Europe or elsewhere, with England as the second best, perhaps the equal. The suggestion has been thrown out that the secret lies in a lime subsoil. The reason for the supposition is a little obscure. The present writer has found that partridges bred on such soil are heavier and stronger and, it seems, fly faster than others, but this is hardly an analogy that can be applied to the horse. There are other, curious analogies. It has long been noticed that the best high jumpers among human athletes, even when the scene of their feats is America, are of Irish descent. It is not less certain that the best jumpers among horses, especially a large percentage at Continental concours, derive their origin from Ireland, with Australia and England as occasional rivals. From the statistics emerges strong presumptive evidence that the climate even more than the breeding skill tends to strengthen the strain.—London Outlook.

The Three Laws of Motion.

The three laws of motion are: (1) If a body be at rest, it will remain at rest unless it is compelled by some external force to change its state, and similarly, if it be in motion, it will continue to move in a straight line and at a uniform velocity forever unless its state of motion be affected by some external force. (2) Change of motion of any body is proportional to the external force that causes it and takes place in the straight line in which the force acts. (3) To every action there is always an equal and contrary reaction, or the mutual action of any two bodies are always equal and oppositely directed. This law is often briefly stated thus: Action and reaction are equal.—New York American.

JOSEPH SCHARFEN KILLED BY ENGINE

Popular Shop Man Was Struck in the Yards While on His Way Home From Work

ACCIDENT OCCURRED SATURDAY
Deceased Had Worked For the N.
P. Railroad Almost Continuously For 25 Years

Joseph Scharfen, one of the oldest employees in the Brainerd shops lost his life while on his way home from work Saturday afternoon. The shops close Saturdays at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and shortly after that hour Mr. Scharfen was walking along the dump just west of the shops when he was struck by an engine which was backing up and instantly killed.

There seems to be two versions of just how the accident happened. Several who were near there have stated that Mr. Scharfen stepped from behind a string of box cars standing on an adjoining track onto the track on which the engine was coming. Mr. John Kaebel, an engineer on engine No. 1411, which struck him, told Coroner Gibson that Mr. Scharfen was walking along the side of the track when he first saw him and was going in the same direction as the engine. He had his cap drawn down over his ears and as he was slightly hard of hearing he probably did not hear the engine. He seemed to be getting too close to the track, according to Engineer Kaebel, and the latter reached for the whistle handle to warn him. Just at that instant, when about ten feet ahead of the engine he stepped upon the track. He apparently just got one foot onto the track when he was struck. His right leg was crushed to a pulp its entire length and his left one was broken at the hip. He was dragged some distance and was badly bruised about the head and his scalp was badly cut. He only breathed once or twice and died before anything could be done to take him from under the engine. Coroner Gibson was called at once and took the body out from under the engine and took it to Clark's undertaking rooms, where it was prepared for burial.

Engine No. 1411 was attached to an extra freight east bound and had left the train in the west end of the yard and gone to the shops for coal and water and was on its way back to pick up the train and proceed to Duluth when the accident occurred. Coroner Gibson decided that there was no necessity for an inquest and the engineer and engine proceeded to Duluth with their train.

The funeral will occur from St. Francis Catholic church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, with interment in Evergreen cemetery.

Joseph Scharfen was born in Westphalia, Germany, on the 26th of February, 1846 or 1847. He was married in Germany to Dora Holtkamp, a sister of Herman Holtkamp, of this city, who died in April 1904. To them no children were born, but they adopted a little girl whom they called Bertha Dora Scharfen, now 13 years of age. Mr. Scharfen was married November 2, 1906, to Mrs. Anna Reinstadtler, of this city, who survives him. Since their marriage the adopted daughter has divided her time between their home and that of Mr. Holtkamp in East Brainerd. Mr. Scharfen came to America and after a brief residence in Pittsburgh came to Brainerd in 1882. Except for a short time which he lived in Waukesha, he has been an employee of the Northern Pacific company ever since he first came to Brainerd. He spent four years in Tacoma working in the Northern Pacific shops there, and the rest of the time he has been employed in the Brainerd shops. He has a large number of friends among the shop employees and others in the city who sincerely mourn his death. The blow falls especially heavy upon his widow as only a few weeks ago she was called upon to part with her only son, Peter Reinstadtler, who died in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Etta Robinson Left Pocketbook in 'Water Closet in Northern Pacific Depot Sunday

Mrs. Etta Robinson probably will not leave her pocketbook in the water closet in a depot again soon. The lesson did not come high this time but it might next. She left a purse in the closet at the Northern Pacific depot Sunday afternoon and when she went back after it it was gone. Inquiry of Ticket Clerk Davis brought forth the fact that three girls had returned the purse to him empty claiming to have found it. Mr. Davis had recognized the girls, one being a Moehler girl and the other two Landry girls. Officer Clyde Winter went to the Moehler home and recovered one dollar of the money and then to the Landry home up toward the mill district and secured all the $5.55 the pocketbook contained except fifteen cents. This the girls, who range from ten to 13 years of age had spent.

FOUR GENERATIONS

Photographer Opsahl Took Interesting Picture of Four Generations Thursday Last

It is not often that a photographer is called upon to take a picture of four generations at one sitting. Photographer Opsahl had that unique experience last week when he was called to the residence of Thomas Kelly in Southeast Brainerd to make a sitting of four generations of the Holbrook family. Charles Holbrook, of Neutral, the third generation in the picture, who is a brother of Mrs. Kelly, is convalescing at her home from an attack of typhoid fever and was unable to come to the gallery. The oldest in the group was A. N. Holbrook, of Riceville, Iowa, who is about 76 years of age, having been born in Madison, Ohio, December 24, 1831. His son, W. N. Holbrook, of Neutral is 57 years of age and was born in Wisconsin. Charles N. Holbrook, the son of W. N. Holbrook, is about 30 years of age and Orva Holbrook, his son, is almost three years of age.

Not His Complaint.

A short while since a number of amateur musicians in a country town met for the purpose of organizing an orchestra. They were successful in procuring all the performers they desired except an ophicleide player.

One of the number finally volunteered to take up the instrument and try to learn to play it. He had no ophicleide; but, hearing that he could probably borrow one from a young man in the place who was thought to own one, he, happening to meet him in the street one day, accosted him with: "How are you, Brown? I heard you had an ophicleide."

Brown looked at him in utter amazement, having probably never heard of such an instrument before, and stammered out:

"Well, I—I was very ill about two weeks ago, but I don't think I had that, at any rate!"—London Graphic.

The Original "Long Tom."

The original "Long Tom" had a strange and romantic history. It was, or, rather, is, for it still exists, a forty-two pound gun of the old type, which was originally a part of the armament of the French battleship Hoche. It was captured by the British in 1793 and soon after was sold to the United States government. In this country it was placed on the ship General Armstrong and after some minor adventures with our ships in the war with the Barbary states did good duty against its former captors, the British, by helping to run the blockade of New Orleans in 1814. Afterward the Armstrong was sunk by the British in the harbor of Fayal, in the Azores. There Long Tom lay dismantled until a patriotic American procured permission to dig it up and carry it away, and it was brought to New York city in 1833.—Minneapolis Journal.

Do Something.

A catby was brought to the police station for having hit one of his fares over the head during a dispute about his payment.

"Couldn't you explain to the gentleman without hitting him?" inquired the magistrate.

"Yes, sir, of course I know I was wrong, but, you see, I had jumped off the box, and I couldn't do that for nothing!"—Nos Loisirs.

"What are you going to do when you're a man?" asked the visitor.

"I've been thinking," replied the bright boy, "of starting an elephant farm in Virginia."

"An elephant farm?"

"Sure! Why not? They raise peanuts there!"—Philadelphia Press.

Cured of Bright's Disease

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders, and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease."

Nov. 21—The Land of Nod.
Nov. 30—Adelaide Thurston.

"The Land of Nod"

The presentation of "The Land of Nod" which will be made at Brainerd opera house Nov. 21 is much grander and more sumptuous than seen at its initial offering in the middle west. New songs and dances and new light and tone effects have been supplied, keeping it far in the lead of the other things of its kind. Managers who have the temerity to invest $100,000 in so vast a spectacle can not be blamed for locating it in the center of millions of admirers so it is quite reasonable to expect that the New York time will be taken up soon after its visit to Brainerd.

Hooligan in New York

The jolliest, funniest and most laughable of all comedies, "Hooligan in New York" will be the attraction at the Brainerd opera house on Nov. 19th. It's funnier than a circus. That's what people say because there is something doing all the time from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The company has been engaged with special care and a high-class entertainment is promised. Hooligan and his dog, Flip, never fail to produce two and one-half hours of laughter.

A Rare Musical Treat

Saturday evening the Midland Concert company, the second entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. course, appeared before a small but appreciative audience at the First Congregational church. The fact that it was Saturday evening proved a great drawback, preventing many from attending. Each member of the company is an artist in her line and every number was heartily encored, the company showing much kindness in responding. The members of the company were also kind enough to give a sacred concert Sunday evening, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. entertainment fund, which was greeted by a crowded house.

Fur Lined Overcoats

There was a time, and not so long ago either, that a Fur Lined Overcoat was a good deal like an Auto or a Yacht.

They could not conveniently be purchased by a man of moderate means.

The situation has changed—we now have handsome and luxurious Fur Lined Overcoats for such reasonable prices as

$25.00, $50.00, $75.00, $150.00

The fabrics are fine Broadcloth and very choice light weight Kerseys.

The linings are a variety of furs, according to price.

The collars are Persian Lamb, Seal, Otter, Mink, etc.

Fur lined coats will be in great favor again this year, and now is the best time to make selections.

GAVE SACRED CONCERT

Midland Concert Company Gave Sacred Concert Sunday Evening at First Congregational Church

Through the kindness and courtesy of the members of the Midland Concert company the citizens of Brainerd were enabled to hear a sacred concert Sunday evening such as is seldom listened to in towns of this size. Owing to the poor turnout at the Saturday evening concert the members of the company offered to give a concert in the First Congregational church Sunday evening to which admission should be free, but at which an offering would be taken for the benefit of the lecture fund. Notice was given in the various churches Sunday morning and the church was packed to the doors. As a result $30 was added to the concert fund and the audience had a most enjoyable evening. Every number was listened to with close attention and it would be impossible to say which of the artists stood highest in the estimation of the audience. It was stated by musical critics present that the violinist was superior to the lady now with Sousa's band.

After the entertainment the members of the concert company and a few friends were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. LaBar, where they were delightfully entertained. Light refreshments were served and several musical numbers listened to.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh, being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A servant girl was brought to a cot tage hospital suffering from an over dose of poison.

When questioned as to her motive for taking it she replied:

"I wasn't feeling well, and I went to my mistress' room to get some medicine from the chest she has there. SAW HIS OPPORTUNITY.

The Reporter Seized It and Got His Real Start In Life.

All the city traveling public loves a strap hanger because it has a fellow feeling for him. This is why the story of how Frank Vanderlip, the banker, got his start has an almost universal appeal. It happened when Vanderlip was a reporter on a Chicago newspaper and writing financial news. The traction situation then, as now, was almost impossible. Charles T. Yerkes was traction dictator, and the stockholders and the public never had a word to say in the conduct of the roads. Nor could they get any definite idea of the financial condition of the properties.

The time for the annual meeting of the stockholders of the principal road came along. At all the meetings Mr. Yerkes had rattled off the reports in the usual undecipherable corporation way, and no one knew what was doing. So Vanderlip planned a coup. He bought a share of stock, which admitted him to the meeting. He had been a stenographer before he became a newspaper man. When Mr. Yerkes called into his breezy explanation of finances the young reporter took down everything he said. Mr. Yerkes used one striking phrase, and it was this: "The passengers who have seats pay the operating expenses, but the strap hangers pay your dividends."

The next day the sentence topped Vanderlip's account of the meeting. It aroused a storm of discussion, for it laid bare some of the traction methods; also it got Vanderlip a raise in salary and a promotion.—Saturday Evening Post.

It Would Not Pay.

It was undoubtedly true that the stout man took up more room in the crowded car than is often occupied by one person. The exceedingly thin man next whom he sat heavily down gave a sound of disapproval.

"They ought to charge by weight in these cars," he said to his neighbor on the other side, in so clear a tone that the stout man had to hear him.

"Maybe 't would be a good idea, my friend," he said, turning a calm, dispassionate gaze on the thin man, "but if they did you'd have to walk. The car would never stop for you."

SHORN LAMBS.

Ways of the Men Who Lose Their All In Wall Street.

What becomes of the men who lose in Wall street. They are seldom heard of. The visitor to New York gets the notion that the gay crowd of men at the Waldorf—the "uptown street"—comprises them all. But this crowd is altogether misrepresentative and has no true sign value, says a writer on Wall street in the New Broadway Magazine.

You can retain your equilibrium easily in watching them by remembering that Runner of New Britain is hiding somewhere, a fugitive from justice; that Jumper of Milwaukee is in prison; that there are many other men who went down hard with big crashes, and that for every one of the big men there are 10,000 little men whose losses are smaller, but not a whit less fatal.

You would find some of them tonight in New York, if you knew in what window to look, figuring anxiously and endlessly, looking over insurance papers to see if further loans are admissible.

Their wives are sewing; their daughters are studying stenography. You will find others hanging about hotel lobbies, and the moment you catch their eye or grip their hands you know that they are nervous, distraught, broke, restless—typical Wall street victims.

The others, professionals, parasites, satellites, winners, you will find in the cafes and hotel restaurants, making up a large part of the crowds at Sherer's and Delmonico's, Martin's and Rector's, the Waldorf, Manhattan, Astor, St. Regis and Holland House. Wall street by day demands the Great White Way at night. From the moment the market opens till its close the game is a fast and furious one of sharp trickery, clever dodging, rillery, bluffing, hypocrisy, lying.

Nerves are constantly tense; the brain must be clear and quick at every move. Successful lying uses up gray matter, and the flash and festivity of the Tenderloin at night are just unnatural enough to fit in and offer the kind of recreation desired.

Nothing Like That In America.

"This was told me the other day," said a man, "by a friend who has just made the tour of Ireland. He was at the lakes of Killarney, and a jarvey driving one of those side seated cars was telling him of a visitor who was attempting to masquerade as an American, but had all the outward signs of being an Englishman."

"You say, sorr," said the jarvey, "that you live in the United States. Were yez ever in Dubuque, Ia.?"

"I was," said the traveler. "I was here for a fortnight."

"Off wid ye!" said the carman. "Ye were never there. Divil a fortnight do he have in America!"—Indianapolis News.

Getting It Right.

It was on a street car in the city of Washington. Two colored women in cheaply gorgeous splendor were talking and one chanced to mention a Mr. Jinks in her conversation.

"Excuse me," said the other woman, "but his name is not Jinks. It is Mr. Jenks."

"Oh, I sees," said the other woman complacently. "I sees that you puts de access on de pronoun."—Lippincott's.

Came as He Went.

Two young men were in a hot argument over a problem which needed a great deal of mental calculation.

"I tell you," said one, "that you are entirely wrong."

"But I am not," said the other.

"Didn't I go to school, stupid?" almost roared his opponent.

"Yes," was the calm reply, "and you came back stupid."

That ended it.

VIEWS OF AGUINALDO

Former Insurgent Leader Talks of Future of Philippines.

TAFT'S VISIT OF MUCH VALUE

Inauguration of the Assembly Has Gone a Long Way to Cement the Friendship of the Filipinos With the People of the United States.

Manila, Nov. 11.—A feature of the visit of Secretary Taft to Manila was the presence of Aguinaldo at several of the functions for the first time since his capture. Discussing the probable results of the visit of Mr. Taft to Manila with a representative of the Associated Press he said:

"It is my belief that the benefits to follow the visit to the people of the Philippines will be greater than they can recognize at the present time. I am at present unable to form an opinion offhand of the possible future advantages, but am confident that it has done good. The inauguration of the assembly has gone a long way to cement the friendship of my people with the people of the United States. As a fulfillment of a solemn promise which many expected would not be filled, the secretary of war did not bring independence for my people in his pocket, but he brought the means of obtaining it. He told us how we can get it. The Filipinos are thankful for the information and pleased at what the assembly has done, especially in the interests of legislation, education and agriculture."

President of the Assembly Osmena considers that the most important result of the visit has been the harmonizing of the feeling between the Americans and the Filipinos and looks upon the assembly as having been the greatest thing done yet. He is confident that much more has been accomplished than appeared on the surface.

Commissioner Tavera states that Secretary Taft has demonstrated that the promises of the United States are to be fulfilled and has shown himself the friend of the whole people.

ELECTIONS IN ROME.

Indications Point to Sweeping Anti-Clerical Victory.

Rome, Nov. 11.—General municipal elections were held in this city and it is being declared throughout Rome that Anti-Clericals gained their greatest victory since the fall of the church from temporal power. Only municipal offices were filled, but the elections suggested a distinct political character. Their importance was not only local, but extended all through Italy. The contest came as a conclusion to the Anti-Clerical campaign, which had its beginning practically with the present pontificate, for the clericals were then allowed for the first time to participate in the political life of the country. There was a reactionary movement among the anti-clerical element; some of them swung over from the Conservatives to the Socialists and the municipal elections in Rome were chosen as a battlefield. Defeat being inevitable the Clericals, for the first time since 1870, withdrew from the field and as a result the Anti-Clerical victory was complete and without precedent. The Vatican organs maintain that the abstention of the Clerical voters was nothing more than a matter of tactics.

FIVE ARRESTS MADE.

Alleged Traffic in French Naval and Military Secrets.

Toulon, Nov. 11.—Five of the ring-leaders of what would appear to be a most important association of international spies have been arrested by special detectives. The authorities also got a mass of papers and a cursory examination of these documents leads to the belief that the gang for a long time past has been carrying on an extensive traffic in military and naval secrets. The local officials consider the arrests so important that they have communicated with Premier Clemenceau.

Instantly Killed in Runaway.

New Ulm, Minn., Nov. 11.—Michael Charlie was instantly killed in this city in a runaway accident. He was employed by William Ochs, a dairyman, and was sent to the town of Milford for milk. While driving into town the horse became unruly near the hospital, throwing Mr. Charlie out of the wagon, striking a telephone pole and tearing off the top of his skull.

CANNOT ISSUE MORE STOCK

Merger of Public Service Companies Forbidden in New York.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 11.—The New York state public service commission in the Second district has made public a decision which sets forth its attitude toward competition in public service facilities within a city and toward what it regards as attempts to evade the prohibition by the new public service commissions law of inflation or "watering" of securities in the merger of public service corporations. The decision is in the matter of the proposed purchase by a new corporation of the Lockport Light, Heat and Power company, of the Lockport Gas and Electric company and the Economy Light, Fuel and Power company of Lockport. The decision forbids the company to issue securities for a capitalization above $700,000, equivalent to the total issues of the two old companies. The new company desired to issue stocks and bonds to a total of $1,200,000.

The decision says that the case in question is neither consolidation nor a merger, but the purchase by a newly formed corporation of the property and franchises of the two existing companies and that in this respect it is within the law. It is decided, however, that the raising of rates over those at present existing is illegal and such action is prohibited.

PLEADS FOR MORE MONEY

Annual Report of President of Columbia University.

New York, Nov. 11.—President Butler of Columbia university makes a plea for further endowments in his annual report to the trustees of the university just made public. President Butler says that the amount of gifts received in money during the year amounted to $450,070 and on the subject of gifts adds:

"From the report of the treasurer it will be seen that for the year ending June 30, 1907, the deficiency in the cost of maintaining the educational work of the university reached the large sum of $58,109. This sum is exclusive of the interest charge of $88,049. Naturally this result is ground for grave concern."

"It is within the mark to say that an additional free income of $100,000 a year is an absolute necessity if the university is not to restrict its educational opportunities."

Battleship Fleet Will Sail for the Pacific on Dec. 16.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Every detail in the preparations for the sailing of the battleship fleet to the Pacific ocean is now in hand and by Dec. 16, the date on which the vessels will pass out of Hampton Roads in review before President Roosevelt, members of his cabinet and high officers of the navy, all arrangements for the comfort of the men en route will have been attended to.

At all of the navy yards the work of making necessary repairs is being pushed and these will be completed by Dec. 1, provisions are being stored aboard the vessels and their coal bunkers are being filled to their capacity.

The cost of provisioning the fleet is estimated at about $375,000, contemplating the feeding of a force of 15,000 men for 100 days.

RAIDS BY HEAD HUNTERS

Several Japanese Officials Murdered in Formosa.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 11.—Japanese camphor factories in Formosa have been suffering from raids by head hunters, several Japanese officials having been killed and their heads carried off. Punitive expeditions are being organized. Several camphor factories have been suspended owing to the raids and mail advices received by the Empress of India tell of the loss of the steamer Kasuga off the Hokkaido coast during a storm. Her crew of nineteen and eighteen passengers were rescued in the nick of time by the steamer Waknoura Maru, which also reported rescuing thirteen men from a derelict junk, all being emaciated and in a pitiful state. There were three corpses on board.

How Sleep is Caused.
Just how sleep is brought about is one of the unsolved problems that have been before science since the earliest times. There are three general explanations of sleep. They are called the circulatory, the chemical and the histological theories. The first two have subdivisions. The histological theory is now pretty well accepted. The nervous system is made up of thousands of nerve cells. These are connected like a huge net by nerve elements, little branching fibers. Each nerve element is structurally interdependent, but functionally dependent. Neurologists tell us that the fibers become disconnected in sleep—that is, each nerve cell is separated from its neighbors by the elements, or connecting fibers, becoming disconnected. The nerve cells build up themselves while separated, as they have no messages from the body to bear to the brain. As the sleeper regains consciousness the nerve fibers unite and once more begin their duties.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Just as Good as Ever Too.

An old physician of the last generation was noted for his brusque manner and old fashioned methods. One time a lady called him in to treat her baby, who was slightly ailing. The doctor prescribed castor oil.

"But, doctor," protested the young mother, "castor oil is such an old fashioned remedy."

"Madam," replied the doctor, "babies are old fashioned things."—Exchange.
